Editor's NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,
As you know from reading my column, I try to keep you informed about all the different things going on at Archie Comics, from new books to appearances at comic book conventions. But this is also YOUR column. Your letters, your opinions (good or bad), your suggestions, your ideas, are very important to me and Archie Comic Publications.

Over the past year you've seen some changes in our comics. Some were well received, while some were not. As the editor of Archie Comics, it's my job to produce comics that you will enjoy. After all, when you buy a comic, you want to be entertained. I'm sure you understand, however, that from a creative standpoint, I have to try some new ideas. Some of which, by the way, are yours. What I'm getting at is, whatever you do, don't stop writing. Now onto my next brilliant idea.

It seems that most of our main characters, with the exception of Betty, do not have any brothers or sisters. Well, that's about to change. Over the next few months, I'll be looking for some suggestions as to who you think might be the lucky one. Will it be Archie, Veronica, Jughead, Reggie, Moose or Dilton? We're about to go where Archie Comics has never gone before. I want you to be part of it. Well, what are you waiting for? Write today. Express your innermost feelings about the joys of having a little brother or sister. Which Archie character would you like to see experiencing the happiness and responsibilities of being a big brother or sister?

Just a reminder...don't forget to cast your vote this month for the

PHILOSOPHERS

No one had ever influenced the world as these three "great" philosophers of Greece: Socrates had a quest for wisdom. He stated that the "soul" was what makes a person an individual. His method of teaching was to ask questions. Plato was a pupil of Socrates and was a pessimist. He loved knowledge and power. His earliest works were in political science. And he disliked democracy and the lower classes. Aristotle was a pupil of Plato and also a

IN-LINE SKATING

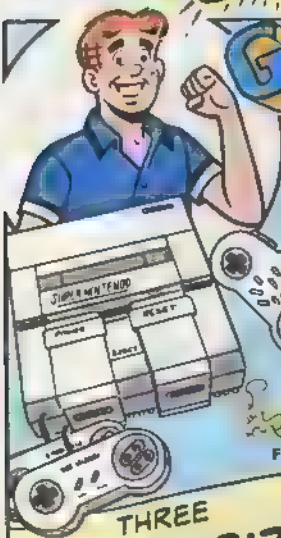

A "hair-raising" craze that's sweeping the nation, named In-Line skating (sometimes called roller blading) is an energetic and easy to learn sport that has become a hit with young and old! The skate has 3 or 4 wheels forming a line under the shoe. When skating, wear safety equipment (knee pads, elbow pads and a helmet.) In-line skating is fun. Get out and skate!!
